GLENDALE (Los Angeles Postoffice) CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1919

NO. 13

POSTMASTER BROWN VISITS GLENDALE

Postmaster Harrington Brown, of Los Angeles, accompanied by George Hallett, Superintendent of the Glendale Branch Postoffice; J. D. Spence, Superintendent of Mails, Los Angeles Postoffice; W. C. Brown, Foreman of City Carriers; L. O. Sheets, Superintendent of Deliveries and Carriers, met a committee of the Greater Glendale Development Association, at the Glendale Savings Bank Thursday forenoon at 9 o'clock. Members of the local committee present were Dr. H. R. Harrower, C. D. Lusby, Roy L. Kent, J. Herbert Smith, A. T. Cowan, C. E. Kimlin and Norton C. Wells, president of the Association.

Postmaster Brown assured members of the committee that it is his purpose to give patrons of the Glendale branch office good service, and his visit to Glendale was to learn what is needed. He admitted that the building facilities are inadequate, and said notices are now posted calling for bids for larger quarters.

As to the question of having more than one window open for the delivery of mail, there seems to have been a misunderstanding about that, and Superintendent Hallett will certainly be furnished with sufficient clerks to give service to the patrons, whether it requires one, two or three windows to be open. Good service will be the watchword with all connected with the Glendale branch postoffice henceforth.

Many complaints and suggestions were offered by the committee and the same were courteously received by Postmaster Brown and his assistants. Mr. Brown asks for the cooperation of all patrons of the postoffice, and he claims that the betterment of the service will depend upon the degree of co-operation extended by the patrons.

VICTORY LOAN FOR APRIL

Reports that Loan Is Called Off Are Untrue

The Victory Loan Campaign is not called off, but will be held in April, as previously announced. To correct the misunderstanding that resulted from a recent announcement that the Victory Loan was called off, James K. Lynch, Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District, makes the following statement:

"Telegraphic reports of changes in the plan for financing the Government, have produced a feeling of uncertainty in the minds of our citizens.

"We have positive assurance from Secretary Glass that a popular loan will be offered for subscription on April 21st, and that this will be a 'salable loan,' in other words, a loan that will be attractive to the investor, whether in the form of certificates, notes or bonds.

"Obviously, there are details which cannot be decided, and announcements which cannot be made until Congress has legislated.

"Let us not be confused by preliminary discussion, but let us keep our minds fixed on the fact that our Government requires the money to complete the work it has undertaken. The attempted industrial revolt which collapsed in Seattle, owing to the firmness of the mayor, is evidence that Hun propaganda is still active. The war will not be over until the Huns have been given the bill and have begun paying. Then and only then will they realize defeat and confess error."

NEW BUILDING

Supply Station and Vulcanizing Plant

The corner of Broadway and Maryland, the old home of the Central Stables, has been sold by Mattison B. Jones to Mr. Grose, of the Grose Vulcanizing Co. Work of leveling the property has already started, and a vulcanizing plant and supply station will be erected on the property at an early date.

The plans, which were prepared by Roy L. Kent, will give Mr. Grose one of the most up-to-date places in Glendale, and one which will be very accessible to the automobile driving public.

C. B. Wilde expects to leave Glendale within the next two weeks for Bakersfield to handle the Nash car for Kern County. Mr. Wilde has been a member of the firm of Walker, Wilde & McFadden, Ford agents, who recently sold out their business to Jesse E. Smith, from whom they purchased it when he entered army service. Mrs. Wilde and her children will remain in Glendale for the present, as she wishes to stay until their home on Milford and Central Avenue is sold.

Howard Crane and wife have returned from Arizona. While they were gone Mr. Crane had the flu, which developed into pleurisy, but he is looking fine now.

1919 THRIFT CAMPAIGN

Every postmaster has been requested by Postmaster General A. S. Burleson to give co-operation in the government's campaign of thrift during 1919. Following is the letter of the Postmaster General, which has pleased Thrift Stamp executives in the Twelfth Federal Reserve District:

"Postmasters:

"The Post Office Department deeply appreciated the splendid patriotic war savings service of postmasters during the year nineteen eighteen, and inasmuch as the thrift movement is to be one of the major operations of the United States Government for the year nineteen nineteen, the Post Office Department earnestly asks your co-operation with County, City and Town War Savings Chairmen for the year nineteen nineteen.

"It is not true, as many seem to believe, that the war is over. The war will not be over insofar as our people are concerned until financial obligations we have incurred have been completely discharged. As a representative man in your community, there devolves upon you a duty to to our country and to the people with whom you come in contact, to co-operate in the most important activity sponsored by our government. Hence I bespeak your cordial co-operation in War Savings for this year.

"A. S. BURLESON,
"Postmaster General."

WORDS OF WISE MEN

He who believes in nobody knows that he himself is not to be trusted.

Some men are like rusty needles; the best way to clean and brighten them is with work.

A gentleman is one whose courtesy is such that it commands courtesy in other people.

Between the great things that we cannot do and the small things we will not do the danger is that we shall do nothing.

Every person has two educations—one which he receives from others, and one more important, which he gives himself.

We should choose our friends thoughtfully, wisely, prayerfully, but when we have pledged our lives we should be faithful whatever the cost may be.

Each of us is bound to make the little circle in which he lives better and happier; each of us is bound to see that out of that small circle the widest good may flow.

The virtue of hopefulness, the invincible resolve to gaze at the bright side of things is a splendid asset in the life of nations or of individuals.

There is no royal road to reconstruction. The way is along the plain path of duties daily done without covetousness or greed, and that, with a better understanding of moral values, will lead to a truer conception of life.

We complacently fancy ourselves moral victors along many lines where there really has been no strong temptation to combat. With generations of clear brains, temperate habits and cool, clean blood behind us, we have never had personal battle with many vices against which others must wage fierce struggle.—Chicago Evening Post.

H. S. Webb Makes Attractive Store Windows

The store windows of H. S. Webb & Co., 103 South Brand Boulevard, have undergone a wonderful transformation the past few days. With inlaid panels and a French ivory back and a new pretty green velvet on the floor, the windows today are probably the prettiest in Glendale. And in keeping with this color scheme, he has a new awning put up, with the firm name in green letters. Mr. Webb, since he took over this popular dry goods store, has made many changes, and all for the better.

This store carries a complete line of dry goods and men's furnishings, and has plenty of clerks to wait on all. Mr. Webb is enjoying a fine business. And, by the way, he is some booster for our little "City of Homes."

WHO SAYS IT?

Slogging through the mud of France,

Camping in the rain;
Hiking in a frozen trance
Down some German plain;
"Fall in!"—hear the sergeant yell,
Far from home and clover;
Tell me, who the bally hell
Said the war "was over?"

Chow for breakfast—slum for noon—

Who says men are free
While the bugler's foolish tune
Pipes the reveille?
"Right dress!"—hear the sergeant buzz
From Mainz across to Dover;
Tell me who the hell it wuz
Said the war "was over?"

Cleaning up a mass of wire,
Stained with clotted blood
Where the big trucks bog and mire
In the winter mud;
Full of filth and fleas and fuzz—
Cannoneer and drover,
Tell me who the fat-head wuz
Said the war "was over?"

Cable the Peace Conference

America's prestige is at stake in the coming Victory Liberty Loan. The eyes of the world are fixed upon us. The nations of the world are going to rate us on this last effort. It is right that they should judge us, not by what we do in the heat of the struggle, but by our condition after the fight.

One of the best guarantees of world peace for years to come would be the successful flotation of the Victory Liberty Loan for five or six billion dollars. Even a combination of powers inclined to start another war would hesitate in the face of such a display of tremendous national strength.

Every man who buys a Victory Liberty Bond next April, moreover, will be adding to the determination with which America speaks at the Peace Conference. There are undoubtedly going to be many moments during that Conference when every whit of the power of the United States will be needed to shape into actualities those ideals for which we entered the world struggle.

Let the cables carry into the Quai d'Orsay this message:

"America has oversubscribed her Fifth Liberty Loan by more than a billion dollars."

THE MISSION PLAY

The "Mission Play," from the pen of our own famous poet and historian, John Steven McGroarty, is attracting greater attention this year than ever before. Thousands who have seen the play depicting the story of the founding of the missions by Fray Junipero Serra, which for years has been one of the winter features of Southern California, are again making their pilgrimage to San Gabriel to see the inspiring leading role played by Frederick Warde, the great tragedian and Shakesperian actor. Other thousands of visitors who have been filling the Mission Playhouse to capacity at each performance since the opening of the pageant-drama for the 1919 season two weeks ago, are tourists from distant cities who have heard of the fame of California's "Passion Play." The story of the foundation of civilization and Christianity on the western shores of America by the renowned and venerated Father Junipero Serra, the Father President of California missions, is of historic and educational interest to all. The joyous songs and dances of California as they existed more than a century ago give the play a richness and color which lingers as a pleasant memory. Performances are given at the Mission Playhouse every afternoon beginning at 2:15, including Sundays, and both Wednesday and Saturday evenings beginning at 8:15. Cars for San Gabriel leave the Pacific Electric Station every twenty minutes. Reservations for seats at the Mission Play can also be made in advance at the Pacific Electric Station.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

By Miss Adda Burch

Mrs. Jennie Thompson, assistant state recording secretary of the W. C. T. U., was given a Surprise Luncheon at State Headquarters, at which the officers presented her with a leather writing case. Mrs. Thompson has left the state, and gone to the College of Missions at Indianapolis to prepare for service as regional secretary of the missionary society of the Christian Church.

A State Anti-Cigarette League was organized at State W. C. T. U. for the purpose of instituting a vigorous campaign against "the little white slaver." Rev. James Walton was the organizer, and he will go into every county of the state to perfect Anti-Cigarette Leagues. The state president and corresponding secretary are members of the league, directorate.

Among the many tourists who are members of the W. C. T. U. now visiting in Southern California is Mrs. Frances Parks, National Secretary, who will be present at the state executive meeting, and at the opening of the Girls' Home Center on Wednesday of next week. Another well known tourist is Miss Emma G. Welch, state recording secretary of Rhode Island W. C. T. U., who is a welcome visitor each winter. Also Mrs. Emma Starrett, national superintendent of Christian Citizenship, and Mrs. Evelyn Graham, of New York.

Mrs. Mary Carman, editor of The White Ribbon, was honored by a personal invitation from Ex-President Taft to attend the League of Nations Conference to be held in San Francisco, February 19-26.

An urgent request from the various missionary workers of Japan that Mrs. Kara Smart Root, state corresponding secretary of Southern California W. C. T. U., and a member of Glendale W. C. T. U., comply with the request of the Japanese temperance forces to come to Japan and help them in their campaign to make Japan "dry," has been received by Mrs. Root. Mrs. Root will accept the position tendered her, in the near future.

Mrs. Orvilla L. Minear, for 12 years treasurer of the City W. C. T. U. federation, passed away, and funeral services were held on Friday, conducted by the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Julia Phelps, county president, had charge.

WORK WANTED BUREAU

A municipal employment bureau has been established at the Glendale City Hall to bring employer and employee together. Men who want help are requested to register at that place so that applicants may be referred to them. The service is entirely free. While the bureau was started primarily to assist returned soldiers, it is not limited to that class. Any man wanting work, whether a soldier or not, can make application, and will be placed if an opening for him can be found.
